6. What Is The constitution of India?

Fundamental Rights are different from other rights available to us. While ordinary legal rights are protected and enforced by ordinary law, Fundamental Rights are protected and guaranteed by the constitution of the country.

The Constitution of India recognizes certain basic fundamental rights for every citizen of India, such as:-

- (a) Right to Equality
- (b) Right to Freedom
- (c) Right to Freedom of Religion
- (d) Right against Exploitation
- (e) Cultural & Educational Rights
- (f) Right to Constitutional Remedies
