About the Event:

EBSB club CMRIT has conducted an online event on “Learning Alpana Designs Online”. Alpana refers to colourful motifs, sacred art or painting done with hands and paint which is mainly a paste of rice and flour on auspicious occasions in many parts of India. The word Alpana is derived from the Sanskrit alimpana, which means 'to plaster' or 'to coat with'. Traditionally, it was drawn by the women of the house before sunset. It is also a folk art in Bengal. The club has also invited the paired state ‘BTKIT Dwarahat’ to participate in the event.
