Feedback and Experience:

Kerala, the only state known as God’s own country. It is situated at the India’s tropical Malabar Coast, has nearly 600km of Arabian Sea Shoreline. Mainly the state popular for the spices and coconut. This visit to Kerala was a wonderful experience for me. It gave me a great knowledge about Kerala, culture of Kerala, Traditions of Kerala. Kerala is a very beautiful state having hot climate as compared to Himachal Pradesh. We had the fortune of tasting keralacuisine such as Sambhar ,Dosa, Idli, Paysam and Coconut drink such as Neera,.we had seen the raw black pepper and cashews which was something new for us.
