The program was inaugurated by Prof. B.S. Murthy, Director of IIT Hyderabad and also Mentor director for IIIT Raichur present in inaugural dais were Prof. P. Raja Lakshmi, Dean students and Dr. Abhishek Kumar, faculty in charge of EBSB club, Dr. Lakshmi Natarajan, faculty in charge of Cultural Activities. The program started with greeting the guests on the dais through floral presentation and lamp lighting.

The IITH and IIIT Raichur EBSB website was launched by Prof B.S. Murthy, the director of IITH and Mentor Director for IIIT Raichur and described the relation of culture and its importance and explained how culture binds the entire nation.

Prof P. Raja Lakshmi delivered the introductory note and explained the concept of “Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharath”. She revealed that IIT Hyderabad has been paired with IIT Kanpur and IIIT Raichur has been paired with IIIT Sonipat students of both states(i.e. Karnataka and Haryana) will be exposed to the culture of one another. A team of 50 students from IITH and 30 students of IIIT Raichur accompanied by faculty from each institute will visit each other’s campus to expose themselves to the culture of others.

Dr. Abhishek Kumar, Faculty in charge of EBSB motivated to CREATE an environment that promotes learning between States by sharing best practices and experiences and ESTABLISH long-term engagements.

The presentation of the website was given by a student coordinator which included the events to be conducted in the present and upcoming semesters.

The Dean students introduced the club members to the students of IITH & IIIT Raichur and ended the event.
