Lohri Celebrations 2020

Date: 13.01.2020

Time: 08:00 Pm to 10:00Pm

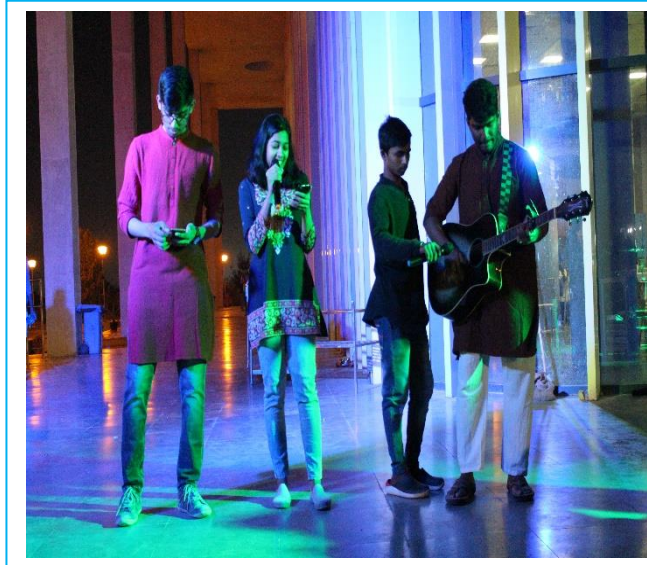

Participants: Students of IIIT Raichur.

Lohri was celebrated by IIIT Raichur students on the premises of the IIT Hyderabad Campus with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm. The mood on the campus was upbeat and the students were totally absorbed in the festive spirit of Lohri.

Lohri is a harvest festival of Panjab popularly known as the breadbasket state of India. Irrespective of which state or religion people belong to, Lohri was celebrated with equal enthusiasm by everyone in India. Everyone celebrated the festival with dance and songs. The bonfire, key feature of Lohri, was kept alight throughout the celebrations.

A key symbol of Lohri is a bonfire, the celebration kickoff by lightning bonfire by Prof. B. S. Murty Director of IIT Hyderabad and Mentor director of IIIT Raichur, greeted the students and stressed on the value of the culture.

Sweets of groundnut were distributed among the students and staff present at the eve. Even as the festival ended, the moments spent at the festival would be some of the most enjoyable memories.
