REPORT OF POSTER MAKING COMPETITION ON HUMAN RIGHTS DAY

On December 10, 2020 Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat Club, in collaboration with IQAC and NCC of GDC Akhnoor organized online poster making Competition on the occasion of “Human Rights Day” under the theme “Recover Better – Stand Up for Human Rights.” The event was organized by Prof. Tarsem Lal - Convener IQAC, Prof. Kuldeep Kumar - ANO NCC and Prof. Pooja Devi - EBSB Nodal Officer under the guidance of worthy Principal Dr. Namarta through digital media platform.

The theme was related to COVID-19 pandemic and focused on the need to build back better by ensuring human rights are central to recovery efforts. The college has invited students from various colleges and universities including paired state TamilNadu to participate in poster making competition. The competition, which was open to all university and college students in all fields of study, was a great opportunity for youth to articulate their vision on various issues of human rights. This creative competition gets students thinking about the best practices to protect and promote the human rights in COVID-19 crisis as well as Post COVID world.

The students from different colleges participated with great enthusiasm in the competition. After the completion of the event, e-certificates were awarded to participants. The Principal Dr. Namarta applauded the participants for overwhelming enthusiasm in taking part in this poster making competition and appreciated all members for organizing this event.

Best Interest

HUMAN RIGHTS HAVE NO BORDERS

★ Human Right Day is observed every year on 10 December - the day on which the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration on Human Rights. The principles enshrined in the Declaration are as relevant today as they were in 1948. We need to stand up for our rights and those of others.
